Event Report A.Y. 2022-23

Event Report: Durga Puja Celebrations at Pune Institute of Business Management

Date: 1st to 5th October 2022

Venue: Pune Institute of Business Management

The Pune Institute of Business Management (PIBM) celebrated a joyous and culturally enriching Durga Puja from 1st to 5th October 2022. The event spanned five days and included a diverse range of activities, bringing together students, faculty, and staff in a spirit of devotion and celebration.

The festivities commenced with the auspicious Murti Sthapna & Shashti Puja, symbolizing the initiation of the vibrant Durga Puja celebrations at PIBM.

- Students, displaying enthusiasm and devotion, participated in the Manas Lake Visit for Kola Maa Puja & Saptami Puja, contributing to the cultural richness of the event.
- Maha Ashtami Puja took center stage, featuring Pushpanjali & MahaVog Distribution, fostering a sense of community and devotion among all participants.
- Continuing the celebrations with Maha Navami Puja, students engaged in cultural festivities, including DJ Garba (Dandiya Dance) sessions for both juniors and seniors.
- The Durga Puja celebrations concluded with Maha Dashmi Puja, culminating in Sindoor Khela & Pratima Visarjan at Manas Lake in the evening.

The five-day event at PIBM was characterized by a harmonious blend of traditional rituals and joyous cultural activities. Active participation from students contributed to the vibrancy of the celebration, fostering unity and a festive spirit throughout the institute. The Durga Puja celebrations not only honored the cultural traditions but also provided a platform for the PIBM community to come together in a spirit of devotion and camaraderie.

Event Report: Ganesh Utsav Celebration at Pune Institute of Business Management

Duration: August 31, 2022, to September 9, 2022

Introduction: The Pune Institute of Business Management (PIBM) embraced the spirit of Ganesh Utsav with a fervent celebration spanning from August 31, 2022, commemorating Ganesh Chaturthi, to the poignant conclusion on Ganesh Visarjan on September 9, 2022.

Ganesh Chaturthi (August 31, 2022): The institute inaugurated the festivities by welcoming Lord Ganesha to the campus on August 31, 2022. The installation of a meticulously crafted idol was accompanied by traditional rituals, devotional songs, dance performances, and speeches. The inauguration ceremony set a joyous and auspicious tone for the ten-day celebration.

Daily Pujas and Cultural Activities (September 1-8, 2022): Over the course of the celebration, daily pujas and culturally rich activities were conducted. Students actively participated in a diverse array of events, including music, dance, and drama. The spiritual ambiance pervading the campus encapsulated the true essence of Ganesh Utsav.

Ganesh Visarjan (September 9, 2022): The grand culmination occurred on Ganesh Visarjan day, September 9, 2022. A vibrant procession, featuring traditional music, dance, and chants, wound its way through the campus as students, faculty, and staff bid a heartfelt farewell to Lord Ganesha. The eco-friendly idol was immersed in a specially arranged water body, symbolizing the conclusion of the festival on a spiritual note.

Eco-friendly Initiatives: Demonstrating a commitment to environmental responsibility, PIBM undertook eco-friendly initiatives throughout the celebration. The idol itself was crafted from sustainable materials, and the immersion process adhered to environmentally conscious practices, mitigating the impact on the surroundings.

Conclusion: The Ganesh Utsav celebration at PIBM seamlessly blended tradition, spirituality, and environmental consciousness. The institute's dedication to inclusive cultural celebrations was palpable throughout the ten-day extravaganza, leaving an enduring impression on the hearts of all who participated. The event showcased the values of unity, respect for traditions, and a deep sense of community spirit.

Event Report: Holika Dahan Celebration at Pune Institute of Business Management

Date: March 6, 2022

Venue: Pune Institute of Business Management

The campus of Pune Institute of Business Management came alive with vibrant colors and festive spirit on the evening of March 6, 2022, as students and staff gathered to celebrate Holika Dahan, a traditional Hindu festival symbolizing the victory of good over evil.

The event commenced with a ceremonial puja, where students and faculty members offered prayers and sought blessings for prosperity and well-being. The atmosphere was charged with enthusiasm as everyone participated in the rituals, bringing a sense of unity and cultural richness to the occasion.

The crackling fire symbolized the triumph of good over evil and the burning away of negativity. The entire gathering joined in the joyous occasion, witnessing the spectacle with awe and reverence. The celebration was not only a religious observance but also a cultural exchange, with students from diverse backgrounds sharing in the joy of the festival.

The event served as a reminder of the rich cultural tapestry that binds us all together and the importance of celebrating diversity. The Pune Institute of Business Management Holika Dahan celebration of 2022 will undoubtedly be etched in the memories of all who attended, marking it as a joyous and vibrant chapter in the institute's cultural calendar.

1. Do not allow the two-dozen who occupy a large chunk of country's wealth, to dictate the Budget agenda.
2. Budget would reflect the aspirations and needs of 80 per cent poor and middle class. Eradication of illiteracy and poverty would be the main thrust of Budget.
3. Also overhaul the tax collection system to bring tax evasion to bare minimum and raise enough money to uplift the standard of government schools, hospitals besides providing the basic amenities like water, sewerage and network of roads, rails and airplanes.
4. The targeted GDP growth, in Budget, would reflect the common man's earnings and the country's infrastructure.
5. The benefits would percolate down the line.
6. Also earmark money to launch a population control drive, which despite being the biggest challenge, hasn't been on any party's agenda till date.
7. Increase income tax exemption limit to ₹5 lakh for relief and better compliance.
8. Reduce GST slabs to 5% and 12% to boost consumption and higher production.

9. Make import of non essential goods difficult
10. Encourage production of silly day today consumables locally and stop their import.
11. Ensure that owners don't build riches at the cost of their business
12. Provide higher returns on savings up to 10 lak
13. Provide subsidy to farmers if prices of their produce go below the critical level

The CSR Club first ever virtual event of 2021- UMANG- एक रवैया, एक परिभाषा !' a motivational event that solely aims to live and relive inspiration and optimism in every single moment of our lives.

We all have been affected by the current pandemic and it forced us to stay indoors. It might restrict us from doing anything motivational or inspiring for the people around us, However, the impact of the pandemic and its consequences were didn't enough to swallow our aspirations. So we thought of Initiating a virtual motivational event that would weigh out the burden of stress of PIBMians and give them a sense of relief from their busy or hectic schedule for a while. Following the idea, we organized UMANG, to entertain and to motivate our audience.

The event has following sub events

- Goonj (Singing): Where each participant sung a motivational song
- Graffiti Wall (Art/ Painting): Form of visual communication In this sub event, participants need to flourish their thought by the help of painting, a painting that speaks a thousand words
- Prerna(Motivational Speech): A way, an utterance, remark that indicates true feelings of every participants which would turned into motivation for others.
- Alfaaz(Shayari): That enables our participants to express their profound emotions from base of their heart.

This event was promoted through Videos & Posters and Google form was being circulated for students to participate in the event, form was floated on 11th April to 17th April.

Also, UMANG was the event where Janta decided their winner through live voting poll. After every sub event voting poll was opened for 3 minutes and audience needs to vote for their favorite participant, Participant with the highest number of votes was the winner of that particular sub event.

This was the first time in the history of PIBM, where winners have been chosen through audience votes, and it was enthralling to had a virtual event like UMANG.

big, embrace their uniqueness, and have the confidence to take on leadership roles. Capt. Jadhav's speech left an indelible mark, inspiring everyone to embrace their true selves and strive for greatness in their respective fields.

Interactive Discussions and Networking: Throughout the day, the event fostered interactive discussions and networking opportunities. Attendees actively engaged in sharing their experiences, ideas, and aspirations for gender equality and empowerment. This aspect of the celebration truly reflected the unity and solidarity of our community in supporting and uplifting one another.

Conclusion:

The Women's Day celebration at Pune Institute of Business Management proved to be a transformative and memorable experience for all participants. Ms. Preranan Katte and Capt. Geeta Jadhav, our esteemed guest speakers, played a pivotal role in inspiring everyone present. Their words not only highlighted the importance of empowering women but also showcased the immense potential and contribution of women in various spheres of life.

As an institution, we reiterate our commitment to promoting inclusivity and empowering women to shatter glass ceilings. The success of this event stands as a testament to the shared vision and dedication of our community in creating a more equitable and supportive environment.

We extend our sincere gratitude to all participants, speakers, and organizers for their valuable contributions in making this celebration a resounding success and a true celebration of womanhood.

Event Report - Ganesh Chaturthi Celebration

Academic Year 2021-2022

Date: September 10, 2021

Event Overview: On September 10, 2021, the PIBM Pune campus once again reverberated with devotion and fervor as it welcomed Lord Ganesha during the Ganesh Chaturthi celebration for the academic year 2021-2022. This year, while the campus continued to remain temporarily closed due to ongoing COVID-19 challenges, the significance of the occasion was undiminished.

Event Highlights: Sthapana Puja by Mr. Raman Preet: The highlight of the event was the ceremonial installation of the Ganesha idol, known as the Sthapana Puja, which was graciously performed by our Chairman and Executive Director, Mr. Raman Preet. This ritual reaffirmed our enduring faith and resilience in the face of adversity.

Digital Documentation: The ceremony was documented extensively through photographs and videos, ensuring that students and the wider PIBM community could virtually participate and witness the celebration.

Event Summary: The Ganesh Chaturthi celebration for the academic year 2021-2022 was a poignant reminder of our faith and strength as a PIBM family. Despite the physical distance, our spiritual connection remained intact, and we continued to seek Lord Ganesha's blessings, trusting in his wisdom to guide us through these challenging times. Ganesh Chaturthi in 2021 was a testament to our unwavering faith and the indomitable spirit of PIBM Pune.

Pune Institute of Business Management

Date: 19th November 2021

Name of the Event: Community Service

Date of the Event: 19th November 2021

Participants: PIBM Faculties (50) and Students (250)

Venue: Camp Gurudwara, Range Hill Gurudwara, and Ganesh Peth Gurudwara, Pune

Introduction: On the occasion of Guru Nanak Gurupurab, the students and faculties of Pune Institute of Business Management (PIBM) came together to celebrate the revered Sikh festival and extend their community service at various Gurudwaras in Pune. The event aimed to promote interfaith harmony, social responsibility, and respect for human values among the students and faculty members.

Activities: The event commenced on November 19, 2021, with students and faculties gathering at three different Gurudwaras across Pune: Camp Gurudwara, Range Hill Gurudwara, and Ganesh Peth Gurudwara. The participants, irrespective of their religious orientation, showed a spirit of unity and embraced the values that Guru Nanak Dev Ji, the founder of Sikhism, preached.

Langar Preparation and Service: Upon reaching the Gurudwaras, PIBM members and students actively participated in preparing Langar, the community lunch served at Gurudwaras. Working hand in hand with the devotees, they chopped vegetables, cooked the meals, and ensured that the Langar was prepared with love and devotion. This act of selfless service demonstrated their dedication to promoting communal harmony and serving the community.

Utensil Cleaning: After the Langar was served, the PIBM team extended their support in cleaning the utensils used during the community lunch. This humble act reinforced the significance of cleanliness and contributing to the welfare of others, as emphasized by Guru Nanak Dev Ji's teachings.

Learning and Impact: The Gurudwara visit and community service provided a valuable learning experience for the students and faculties of PIBM. By actively engaging in the preparation and serving of Langar, they not only gained an understanding of the Sikh culture and traditions but also imbibed the essence of selflessness and empathy.

Through this event, the participants realized the importance of contributing to society and giving back to the community. They acknowledged the significance of unity in diversity and respected the values that cut across religious boundaries. Such community service initiatives help students develop a sense of social responsibility and compassion for the less privileged.

Conclusion: The Guru Nanak Gurupurab Community Service Event organized by PIBM on November 19, 2021, was a resounding success. The event fostered an atmosphere of mutual respect and understanding among the students and faculties, as they actively participated in preparing and serving Langar at various Gurudwaras in Pune.

The experience left a profound impact on the participants, instilling in them the values of humility, service, and communal harmony. It served as a reminder of their responsibility toward society and encouraged them to continue engaging in similar community service activities in the future.

The event came alive with stirring patriotic songs performed by students, invoking a profound sense of pride, unity, and love for the country, providing a much-needed respite from the challenges posed by the pandemic.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all the participants and faculty members who contributed to the grand success of this celebration, demonstrating their dedication to preserving our traditions and values. Their unwavering commitment ensured that Republic Day was celebrated with authenticity and fervor, despite the ongoing pandemic.

As we look to the future, let us treasure the democratic values enshrined in our Constitution and continue our collective journey towards a united and prosperous India, where the rights and aspirations of every citizen are respected, even in the face of adversity.

Name of the Event: Shivjayanti Celebration at Pune Institute of Business Management

Participants: Dignitaries, Faculty members, and students

Venue of the Event: PIBM Campus

Date: 19 February-2022

Introduction: The 2022 Shivjayanti celebration at the Pune Institute of Business Management (PIBM) continued the tradition of honoring the legendary Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj while defying the challenges posed by the persistent COVID-19 pandemic. The campus once again transformed into a vibrant spectacle adorned with colorful decorations and banners, paying homage to the valor and achievements of the great king.

Inauguration: The event's grand inauguration brought together dignitaries, faculty members, and students for a memorable occasion. The ceremony commenced with a traditional lamp-lighting ritual, symbolizing the radiance of knowledge that Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj brought to the nation. This symbolic gesture set the tone for an event filled with reverence and pride.

Cultural Performances: A captivating display of cultural performances enchanted the audience, showcasing the rich heritage of Maharashtra. Students and local artists skillfully performed traditional dance forms like Lavani, Powada, and Classical dance. Students, with rhythmic movements and expressive gestures that left a lasting impression. Despite the ongoing pandemic, the event's spirit remained undaunted, as PIBM diligently adhered to safety measures, including temperature checks, mandatory face masks, and social distancing throughout the festivities.

Resilience and Unity: Beyond its commemorative aspect, the Shivjayanti celebration at PIBM served as a poignant reminder of resilience, pride, and hope during challenging times. It united the community in their shared history, instilling a renewed sense of determination to overcome adversity and embrace a brighter future.

As we reflect on this year's celebration, we honor the legacy of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj and draw inspiration from his unwavering spirit. Together, we look ahead with optimism and the belief that we can overcome any challenges that lie ahead, just as Shivaji Maharaj did centuries ago.
